

GAMBLING HAS CEASED TO EXIST IN THIS STATE

Last Turn of the Faro Game is Made Saturday Night---Gambling Houses of This City Observe Anti-Gambling Law.

The lid is now on in Nevada and this state is again in the limelight seeking the plaudits of the sister states and declaiming to the world that it is a real nice commonwealth. In fact Nevada is of the goody-goody sort and the title of being the wickedest state in the union, as was proclaimed broadcast by the Reno calamity howlers two years ago, will now be tendered to Ohio or Illinois. Sensational magazine writers, who have contributed to a few of the leading eastern publications, and described gambling as they thought it existed, will be out of a job, unless they take to writing up the race riots in the south, the lynchings and martial law proclamations and the sensational graft disclosures in Illinois, or the recent happenings in California.

The closing of gambling in Tonopah was not without incident, and many a staid business man of this city, who had not watched the turn of a faro card in years, was about Saturday night to witness the descent of the curtain. Large crowds gathered in the Tonopah club, the Tonopah Liquor company and the Big Casino, and the play, while not large, was brisk throughout the evening. Every table was surrounded by a mass of humanity, about three deep, and here and there could be noticed a sprinkling of women.

In the Tonopah club, which in the pioneer days of this camp was the scene of many an exciting game when thousands would be at stake, the scene was one of animation. Everybody in the house kept watching the clock during the last few minutes of play and it was noticeable that nearly everybody placed a farewell bet on one of the games.

At the faro layout Cal Shaw was dealing while Tom Callahan officiated in the lookout chair. At 11:40 "Dad" Hallihan announced the last deal and the crowd surged about the table. The cards were shuffled and when the play opened the Jack of Spades was the case. The game was on in earnest and nearly every card contained a bet throughout the deal.

After fifteen minutes of play the "last turn" was announced. The cases showed that a six-ten-jack remained and the players picked out the jack-six as the favorite. One of the ladies present desirous of being in on the last turn placed a ten dollar bet on the trey straight up and it took Cal Shaw about two minutes to explain that the bet was on a dead card. However, the bet was switched to the jack straight up. At 11:56 Shaw made the last turn, and the talent discovered that their hunches had proceeded wrong. The pasteboards came out sixteen with the jack in hock. As a coincidence of the last deal, it was noticed that the first and last cards turned were both jacks.

The dealer turned over the box, placed the deck in his pocket to preserve as a memento, and started counting up the bank roll. A half subdued shout announced that the game was off and then everybody made for the bar in response to an invitation extended by George Beckley, the manager.

On the roulette the last roll ended when the ivory ball dropped in No. 33 and the black. There were no checks on the number, and the few that remained in the hands of the players were cashed in.

At the Big Casino the management bade farewell to gambling in a unique manner. A handsome picture of a tiger has long adorned the walls of this place and early in the evening the management had the picture taken from its place and deposited on a table. It was decorated with crepe, while a huge bouquet of carnations had been placed in front. A card containing the wording "Rest in Peace" served as the announcement that gambling was over.

TONOPAH MAN AT THE HEAD OF NEVADA ELKS

FRANK P. MANNIX APPOINTED DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND EXALTED RULER

Frank P. Mannix several days ago received the appointment from the Grand Exalted Ruler of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, as District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler for the domain of Nevada. There are three Elks lodges in Nevada, Reno, Goldfield and Tonopah, and Mr. Mannix has jurisdiction over all. This is the first time that Tonopah has been honored by having one of its members appointed to this position, although Goldfield members have had the appointment for two years, and prior to that the honors were conferred on the Reno lodge.

Mr. Mannix is required to visit the state lodges at least once a year and will soon make his official visits. Prior to becoming a member of Tonopah lodge No. 1062, Mr. Mannix was a past exalted ruler of one of the Colorado lodges.

REDMOND COMPANY WILL RETURN TO TONOPAH

The members of the Redmond stock company passed through Tonopah this morning en route to Bishop where they will play during the coming week. After concluding this engagement the company returns to Goldfield for a four-night stand and will then come to Tonopah and appear for an equal length of time. From the hearty welcome afforded this company on their recent visit here, they should play to crowded houses during their coming engagement.

The Bonanza's ruling and binding plant is still running. Bring in your orders.

WILL ACCOMPANY MINERS REMAINS TO CALIFORNIA

PARTNER OF ED LAWRENCE
ARRIVES THIS MORNING FROM LOS ANGELES

L. M. Harwood, the proprietor of a lumber yard at Columbia, who also is engaged in business at Los Angeles, arrived from southern California today to make arrangements for shipping the remains of Ed Lawrence, who was killed Friday at Bellehelen by falling down a shaft. The remains will be sent to Haywards, California, in accordance with the wish of a daughter of the deceased, Mrs. Horace Staley. Mr. Harwood was a partner of Mr. Lawrence, the two having been connected in mining for many years. He spoke of the reputation of the deceased, as do all who know him. Mr. Lawrence was aged about 67 years and had lived a righteous life. He had won the respect of all with whom he came in contact, and honesty had been his ruling temperament.

The remains will be sent to California in the morning and will be accompanied by Mr. Harwood. Mr. Harwood was met here by W. D. Mody, a prominent mining man of the Bellehelen district, who was also associated with Mr. Lawrence. Mr. Mody arrived yesterday and assisted in completing the arrangements for the shipping of the body. He will return to Bellehelen tomorrow.

THIS MORNING IN DISTRICT COURT

The hearing on the petitions for naturalization came up in the district court this morning at 9 o'clock and Frederick Percival Oke, Patrick Breslin and William O'Brien were admitted to citizenship in the United States of America. W. F. Littleton of the bureau of naturalization with headquarters in San Francisco, appeared and conducted the examination before Judge Mark R. Averill.

Owing to the fact that the regular session of court is taken up with the Round Mountain case, a continuance was taken this morning until 5 o'clock this evening, when applicants will be examined for an hour. Following a session will again be held at 7:30 and another in the morning. As there are nearly fifty applicants to be examined, it will be several days yet before the entire list is disposed of.
